The National Theatre's smash-hit comedy, now a West End and Broadway sensation, comes to Sydney. Richard Bean's award-winning play is a glorious celebration of British comedy: a unique, laugh-out-loud mix of satire, songs, slapstick and glittering one-liners.

Set in the seaside town of Brighton during the swinging '60s, this is the tale of a simple, sandwich-loving man, Francis Henshall, who engineers himself into the employment of two bosses at the same time. Cue a parade of shady characters, mistaken identities, tortured love triangles and very, very old trainee waiters.
